Role of the ATS

The Association of Teachers of Spanish (ATS) exists to support and promote the teaching of Spanish in Ireland.

The ATS aims to:

- Encourage and support teachers to experiment with new techniques and methods
- Promote contact and discussion among teachers of Spanish in Ireland and in other countries
- Liaise with the Department of Education and other stakeholders in Education on behalf of its members

Join the ATS

- Be part of the professional body of teachers of Spanish in Ireland
- Be represented at a national level through MFL working groups
- Have an international voice through membership of FIAPE
- Experience relevant language and methodology CPD
- Share your feedback on educational and ATS matters
- Find out about student exchanges, scholarships and job vacancies
- Receive preferential rates on ATS events
- Join the ATS Facebook group for tips, resources and information

ATS EVENTS

→ Annual Conference/AGM

Offering CPD on the Spanish language, methodology and the latest teaching trends, along with networking opportunities, trips and other prizes

→ Workshops

Keep up to date with the latest educational innovations and methodologies in small groups

→ Debating

Open to non-native Spanish speaking Senior Cycle students of member schools

→ Table Quiz

Senior students have fun while showing their knowledge of Spanish culture, from celebrities, music and food to history, geography and sport

→ Exam review

A review of the state exams takes place in June and a report is created from members' feedback. This is then shared with the SEC
